

Phone cost is borne by the consumer, and a nice chunk goes to taxes. We should be able to expect a "no-phone list" to be protected by your Dept. The Nation's banks are hardly going broke, they don't need an exemption, so that they can invade MY home on a device I pay for. Please stop this "Phone Spam" Scam in its tracks. Sincerely,-TLR